How Much Will My Pension Pay Me?

Estimating your basic retirement benefit is simple. Just follow the formula above. Use our calculators at www.urs.org for a more detailed estimate.

Years of Service (up to 20 years) x 2.5% + Years of Service (after 20 years) x 2%

X

Average 3 Highest Years' Salary

Basic Yearly Pension Benefit

*Average salary doesn't include allowances and/or overtime pay.

If you have service credit before 1989, you may get an additional 3% added to your pension benefit.

Cost-of-Living Adjustment (COLA)

You'll get an annual cost-ofliving adjustment (COLA) on the anniversary of your retirement date, equal to the rate of inflation, based on the consumer price index. This increase is a simple COLA limited to an annual maximum of 2.5%. (Some agencies have a maximum of 4%.)

When Can I Retire?

Your pension eligibility depends on your age and years of service. Here are the minimum qualifications:

- » 65 with at least 4 years of service
- » 60 with at least 10 years of service
- » Any age with at least 20 years of service

Purchasing Service Credit

Increase the amount of service credit you have

and increase your retirement benefit by reinstating and/or purchasing service credit.

Download this brochure at www.urs.org for more information.

What Are My Payout Options?

When you apply for retirement, you may choose a continuing monthly lifetime payment to your spouse of either 65% or 75% of your benefit upon your death.

Partial Lump-Sum Option (PLSO)

At retirement, you can choose to get a lump-sum payment equal to 12 months or 24 months of your lifetime monthly retirement benefit. By choosing a lump-sum payment, you accept a permanently reduced lifetime monthly benefit. This

Partial Lump-Sum Option (PLSO) is fully taxable and may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty under certain circumstances.
