SECTION B » RECHARACTERIZATION INFORMATION
 A recharacterization allows you to treat contributions made to one type of URS IRA as having been made to a different type of URS IRA, e.g. URS Traditional IRA to URS Roth IRA or URS Roth IRA to URS Traditional IRA.
• The IRS refers to the IRA from which you are recharacterizing as the "First IRA," and the IRA." A recharacterized contribution will be treated for federal income tax purposes are date and for the same taxable year that the contribution was initially made to information.	as having been contributed to the Second IRA on the
• You are responsible for reporting all recharacterization activity on IRS Form 8606 , or as required by the IRS. Please see IRS Form 8606 Instructions for further reporting information.
• A recharacterization must be completed by the due date (including extensions) of your tax return for the tax year in which the contribution(s) were made. This may result in the need to file an extended federal income tax return. Consult a tax advisor.
Any net income attributable to the contribution(s) must also be recharacterized (URS will calculate any earnings or losses). The net income recharacterized with the contribution(s) will be treated as earned in the Second IRA.
If you recharacterize, you cannot deduct contributions made to the First IRA.
Consult a tax advisor regarding IRA recharacterizations. URS does not provide legal or tax advice.
