Post-Retirement Employment

Post-retirement employment means returning to any employment for a URS participating employer following your retirement date with URS.

RE-EMPLOYMENT WITHIN ONE YEAR

If you are employed by a participating employer within 60 days of your retirement date with URS, your retirement benefit will be canceled, you will be returned to active status, and earn additional service credit, if you are eligible for service credit accrual.

You can be employed with a participating employer after 60 days, but within one year from your retirement date with URS, subject to the following:

You cannot receive any employer provided benefits including, but not limited to: medical, dental, paid time off, annual leave, sick leave, other insurance benefits, excluding workers compensation.

Your salary is limited to the lesser of $15,000 or half of your final average salary during a calendar year. If you exceed the earnings' limitation or receive benefits, your retirement allowance will be canceled.

When you terminate your post-retirement employment, the termination date will serve as your new retirement date for purposes of calculating your separation requirement*, under the post-retirement restrictions.

RE-EMPLOYMENT AFTER ONE YEAR

If you are employed with a participating employer after one year from your retirement date with URS, and meet the separation requirement*, you will elect to either:

- earn a salary and continue to receive the retirement benefit; or
- earn a salary and cancel the retirement benefit in order to earn additional service credit; if re-employed for at least two years, a separate benefit will be calculated based upon the new service and salary at the time of the second retirement. Your original retirement benefit and the new retirement benefit will be combined.

SEPARATION REQUIREMENT - You must separate from employment (including part time and contract arrangements) with any participating employer for one year from your retirement date with URS. If you are re-employed after 60 days, but within one year from your retirement date, the separation requirement will not be met until you complete 12 consecutive months of separation from employment with all URS participating employers.

What to Expect After I Submit My Retirement Application

- » If you mailed your retirement application and paperwork to our office, and the paperwork is correct and complete, a confirmation letter will be mailed to you.
- » If the retirement paperwork is incomplete or additional forms are required, a letter will be mailed to you indicating what is needed to complete the application process.
- » It may take up to three (3) months after your retirement date with URS to begin receiving payment of your monthly benefit. However, if your retirement application is received after your retirement date with URS, it can take up to three (3) months from the receipt of your application, to begin receiving payment of your monthly benefit.
- » Your retirement benefit will be paid on the last working day of each month.
- » Your first payment may be estimated. Once all service and salary is verified, your estimated benefit will be finalized, and you will receive a letter confirming your final benefit amount. The difference between the estimated benefit and the finalized benefit will be paid to you.
- » If you selected the Partial Lump-Sum Option (PLSO), it will be paid when we issue your first check.
- » If your retirement benefit is estimated, we will only pay you 80% of your PLSO. At the time your benefit is finalized, we will then pay the remaining 20%.
- » Throughout retirement you will receive the Cycles newsletter to keep you informed of your URS benefits.

Receiving Your Retirement Check

We encourage direct deposit of your pension benefit check.

Your retirement benefit is paid monthly. If you selected the PLSO option, it's paid when we issue your first check. However, your first monthly benefit and your PLSO payment, if applicable, may be delayed up to three months following your retirement date or the date your application is filed with URS, whichever is later. You should plan to cover this interim period with some form of income. The delay is due, in part, to the time required to receive and post salary information from your employer and to verify your termination and service credit eligibility. Checks are mailed or electronically (direct) deposited on the last working day of the month. The PLSO payment will be paid separately as an actual check, approximately at the same time as your monthly benefit.

Beneficiaries

The financial settlement your beneficiary(ies) receive at your death is determined by the retirement system in which you retire and possibly the option(s) you select.

Tier 1 Public Employees Contributory and Noncontributory Retirement Systems

If you select Option One, your beneficiary(ies) receive(s) no monthly benefit or refund of member contributions (if applicable), unless death occurs within 90 days after your retirement date.

If you select Option Two, you may name whomever you choose as beneficiary(ies) to receive the remaining balance of member contributions (if applicable) upon your death. You may change your beneficiary(ies) at anytime.

If you select Options Three, Four, Five, or Six, your spouse at the time of retirement is designated as your beneficiary. This beneficiary cannot be changed. For a detailed description of the six different pension payout options, please see the Six Retirement Options section in the Highlights brochure.

If retiree life insurance is selected at the time of retirement for you and/or your spouse, you may name whomever you wish as beneficiary(ies). Beneficiary(ies) on the life insurance can be changed at any time.

Tier 1 Public Safety and Judges Retirement Systems

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 65% or 75% of your monthly benefit depending on the pension payment option you select at retirement.

Tier 1 Firefighters Retirement System

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 75% of your monthly benefit.

Tier 1 Legislators Retirement System:

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 50% of your monthly benefit.

Cost-of-Living Adjustments

Cost-of-living adjustments (COLA) are intended to help keep your retirement payments in line with inflation.

As the cost-of-living rises, so will your pension benefit. Your COLA is based on the consumer price index (CPI) as determined by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and approved by the Retirement Board. It's calculated using the average CPI for the calendar year compared to the average CPI for the previous calendar year.

You will be eligible for a COLA based on the system from which you retire. COLAs are paid on the anniversary of your retirement date.

Please visit www.urs.org for more information and historical COLAs on URS pension benefits. (<https://www.urs.org/Pages/Retired/Pension/Cola.aspx>)

Health Insurance

Health insurance is based upon your employer's benefit package.

Health insurance after retirement is based on your employer's benefit package and should be reviewed carefully with your employer before you retire. You should also check with your employer about any early retirement incentives. You may purchase a supplement to Medicare that's available at age 65, to you and your spouse through PEHP. For PEHP Medicare supplement information call: 801-366-7555 or 800-765-7347.

Retiree Life Insurance

Public Employees Contributory and Noncontributory Retirement Systems Only.

You may purchase retiree life insurance for yourself and/or your spouse, which can be selected in addition to the six payout options. The cost of the life insurance appears as a deduction on your retirement check. The coverage is available in the amounts of $3,000, $5,000, or $10,000. The cost for this insurance is shown on your retirement estimate.

If you or your spouse die(s) within the first three years after retirement, retiree life insurance payment to the designated beneficiary(ies) will be as follows: 25% of the selected amount will be paid if death occurs in the first year; 50% will be paid if death occurs during the second year; 75% will be paid if death occurs during the third year; and payment of 100% beginning with the fourth year and thereafter.

You may cancel your election for life insurance at any time. However, you may only elect to purchase retiree life insurance at retirement.

Survivor Benefits

The system you are in determines what continuing benefit, if any, is payable to a beneficiary after your retirement.

Tier 1 Public Employees Contributory and Noncontributory Retirement Systems:

The option you select at retirement will determine what, if anything, is payable to a beneficiary. If you select option three, four, five, or six, your spouse, at the time of your retirement, will receive a continuing benefit after your death. For a detailed description of the six different options, please see the Six Retirement Options section of the Highlights brochure.

Tier 1 Public Safety and Judges Retirement Systems:

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 65% or 75% of your monthly benefit depending on the option you select at retirement.

Tier 1 Firefighters Retirement System:

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 75% of your monthly benefit.

Tier 1 Legislators Retirement System:

Your spouse, at the time of your death, will receive 50% of your monthly benefit.

Taxes

The amount of tax you pay will be determined by the tax laws in effect the year in which you are receiving benefit payments.

Pension payments:

Your retirement benefits are generally taxable. Federal and Utah state income taxes can be withheld from your retirement check. Federal income tax will be withheld beginning with your first retirement check, unless you tell us otherwise. If you are a nonresident, check your state's tax laws for the status of your Utah retirement benefits. You may change your withholding status at any time.

If you had after-tax contributions withheld from your paycheck, you may exclude a percentage of your monthly benefit from taxation. This information will arrive with your first retirement check. Every January you will receive a 1099-R showing the gross and taxable amounts of benefits paid to you the previous year and the taxes withheld.

Partial Lump-Sum Option (PLSO) payments:

PLSO payments are generally taxable. When you receive a PLSO, the IRS requires 20% of the amount withdrawn be withheld for federal income taxes.

If you receive a PLSO prior to age 59½, you may be subject to the 10% early withdrawal penalty tax. This penalty is in addition to any federal or state income taxes you are required to pay. This penalty tax may not apply if you work into or beyond the year you reach age 55.

To defer paying taxes on your PLSO payment, you may roll over all or a portion of your "eligible rollover distribution" to a 401(k), or other qualified plan, a 403(b), or to a traditional IRA.
